Tonight's Program.

8:00—Fireworks by "Fearless" Blondin, and also wire walking act by Blondin.

10:00—High dive by C. A. Bigley.
10:30—Monoplane flight by Worden.
1:30—Races.
2:30—Monoplane flight.
2:45—Trapeze performance and wire walking.
4:00—Balloons ascension.
5:00—Monoplane flight.

Judging by the immense crowds, laughter and frolic and the constant attractions offered by the management, yesterday was the gala day—in other words, the climax—in the Nodaway county fair. The crowd began filing into the gateway as the sun started from the eastern horizon, and continued until long after the full moon had shown her face. It was one continual jam from the gates to the farther extremity of the fair grounds, but everybody appeared to enjoy it.

The races were considered the best of the week and were well received by the thousands of witnesses. The monoplane flights during the day by J. Hector Worden in his big Moisant, balloon ascension by Phil E. Phelps, high dives by C. A. Bigley, and fireworks of various kinds last night kept the crowd busy to view all. In fact, it resembled much a three-ring circus, with the auditors trying to take all in.

The best received race of the afternoon naturally was the Maryville derby, in which three steeds were entered for the one-mile course. Mintank, owned by J. T. Sells, and the pick of the more expert horsemen and race lovers of the assembly, carried off first trophy by going the rounds in 1:43½. Frank Flescher, the pride of J. M. Singleton came out of the contest with the red ribbon while B. A. Jones, with his trim runner, Waldo, took away the third prize. Two other speedsters scheduled to have been entered failed to appear.

Lowest Racing Record.

In the first race of the afternoon which consisted of three heats of mile courses, Red View scored first of all with a record of 2:13½. This, by the way, was a reduction of two seconds in the swift gait set by some of the best speedsters of the middle west in days gone by when Maryville held annual fairs and racing events. Red View is the glory of W. M. Fields of Quincy, Ill.

Rascoe Medium, owned by T. J. Phelps of Fayette, Mo., scored second throughout with a gait of 2:15½, while J. McKerron made the course in 2:17. In the second race of the day in which five speedy equines took part, Lassie Dere, the property of J. T. Sells of Tulsa, Okla., went the three-fourths mile in 1:19 while Puck, owned by J. M. Singleton, came second. Following them came Ballancer and White Lilly in order.

The five-eighths mile run, the third race of the day, was made quickest by Bess Ward, owned by J. M. Bracken, it being in 1:04. King Earl and Claudine followed in order.

Blondin Amuses Crowd.

The closing event on the half-mile course was lived by five trim steeds racing 4½ furlongs. Classy Variety lived up to its name by scoring first with a record of 55½, while King Earl showed his title to the crimson banner. Fay C followed with White Lilly bringing up fourth. Lovers Lane failed to get off with the rest in the event.

The aerial maneuvers by Messrs. Worden Bigley and Phelps yesterday were splendid in the opinion of the crowd. The band music and negro dialect songs also aided in keeping the multitude in a No. 1 spirits.

"Fearless" Blondin, the divine, who bantered Niagara several years in the back ground, also brought forth considerable applause last night with his deliveries into flames on a taut wire.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND ATTEND FAIR

Day's Receipts Aggregate $5,000—Police Arrest Many.

Fifteen thousand people! That is the estimate that is being made of the crowd at the Nodaway county fair yesterday afternoon. Several stated that the crowd was the biggest one ever in Maryville, and others say that it was a bigger one than Maryville had at the white way celebration over a year ago.

The eating houses uptown and down on the grounds did a good business. The hacks and autos also were busy all day.

There were more motor cars in the city yesterday than at any other time in the history of Maryville. The cars on the grounds showed a count of 817. Then there were as many cars on the outside. It is believed there were 2,000 autos here yesterday.

The gate admissions amounted to $3,990 up to the evening's performance. Over $1,000 was taken in at the race tracks.

All of the trains yesterday had extra coaches. The Burlington had six coaches on all of its trains. They were filled.

The crowd was orderly. The records of the police court today show that there were twenty arrested for drunkenness, for disturbing the peace and for gaming. The fines and costs amounted to $91.70. Up to yesterday the police court had done a business of $156.25 in fines and costs for the three days.

Today's crowd is a big one, but not as large as yesterday. An estimate placed on it at noon today was 10,000.

DON RILEY WON SEVERAL PRIZES.

Noted St. Joseph Horseman Captured Premiums at Horse Show—Dysart Brothers Won Several.

The horse show at the fair this morning was the best one yet held and the attendance far better than yesterday. There were many fine horses in the show, a few of the exhibitors being Don Riley of St. Joseph, the noted horseman; Hutton & Everett of Smithville, Mo.; Dysart Bros. of Savannah, and R. G. Munday of Bolckow. Before the show was held a parade of the horses was had, marching around the square uptown and then down to the grounds.

Col. Wm. Lee of Mexico, Mo., was the judge of the show.

The winners follow:

MANAGER IS POPULAR.

J. M. Stevens, Who Directs the Races at the Fair Shows Experience.

Mr. J. M. Stevens of Creston, Ia., who has charge of the races at the fair, is proving himself a favorite with the fair officials and fair goers. Although Mr. Stevens is a young man, he shows that he has had considerable experience by the satisfactory manner in which he directs the work. He is manager of the Creston race meet, which is to be held September 9, 10 and 11. He also managed the Parnell race meet, August 29, and the St. Joseph race meet, which was held in connection with the interstate fair two weeks ago.

Miss Lulu Todd of this city, who is also a teacher in the Hammond schools, will leave tomorrow to take up her second year's work. Miss Todd will be accompanied by Miss Maude McMillan, who teaches again this year in the Milwaukee, Wis., public schools.

HAS $13,000 FIRE

HOPKINS BUSINESS HOUSES DAMAGED THIS MORNING.

FAMILY INTO FLAMES

New Department Proves Worth in First Test—Was Caused by Combustion.

Fire, believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion, caused a property loss of approximately $13,000 among Hopkins business houses early this morning. Only through the prompt and efficient work of the new fire department was the fire prevented from spreading to adjacent buildings. Those damaged by the fire were the Owl pharmacy, owned by John S. Stevens; A. S. Bienen Mercantile company and the A. Gordon Grocery company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ol Wheeler, who live on the second floor over the establishment of the Gordon Grocery company, narrowly escaped serious injury from the flames in making their exit through the stairway over the Owl pharmacy. They were slightly burned about the face and hands.

The fire was discovered at between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning by several persons living at Sheridan, who were returning home from Maryville, where they had attended the county fair yesterday. The flames at that time were bursting from several windows over the drug store. They promptly turned in an alarm and aided in extinguishing the fire.

Water Increases Damage.

The entire second floor of the structure was used by the drug firm and mercantile establishment for storing wares. Much of the stock consisted of paints and drugs carried by the drug firm. It is believed the fire was caused by the chemical action of the drugs. The mercantile establishment estimates its loss at more than $10,000, or half of the value of the total stock. Insurance aggregating $9,000 was carried on the stock. The drug firm has estimated its loss at $2,500. Virtually all is covered by insurance. The loss to the A. Gordon Grocery company was small. Much of the damage suffered by each firm was caused from water thrown into the structures by the city fire department.

The buildings were situated in the heart of the business section and are surrounded on all sides by other structures. The fact that there was little wind, only recently a slight rain-fall and the prompt action of the fire fighting force probably saved Hopkins from a much greater fire, residents say.

Hopkins only last spring installed a water system and fire department. The fire this morning was the first of any consequence since the improvements were made.

PLENTY OF WATER NOW.

River Half Full—Sandpoints a Success.

There is plenty of water in the 192 river now, it being about half bank full. The water came down the river yesterday afternoon and just came in time, as the water in the reservoir was nearly depleted.

Five of the sandpoints are down and the other ten will be driven next week, as D. Hockinsmith of Stanberry, who is in charge of the work, had to go home last night. A test of four sandpoints was made Thursday afternoon when the reserve supply nearly gave out. They furnished over 200 gallons a minute.

In the fall Mr. Haddon's shoulder and arm were badly hurt. His small nephew, who accompanied him, was unhurt.

LEMBERG TO RUSS

CZAR'S MEN TAKE AUSTRIAN CITY, MESSAGE DECLARES.

GERMANS NEAR PARIS

Part of Kaiser's Force Enters Switzerland to Prevent Capture, According to Rumor.

(By American Press.)

London, Sept. 4.—A Petrograd, (St. Petersburg) special message to the Reuter Telegram company says the commander-in-chief has notified the emperor that Russians have occupied Lemberg. The commander's message was: "With extreme joy and thanking God I announce to your majesty that the victorious army under General Ruzsky captured Lemberg at 11 o'clock this morning. The army of General Brussiloff has taken Halicz."

Telegraphing from Rome a correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company says a message received from Basel, Switzerland, declares an unfounded report has come into Basel from Berne setting forth that General-Lieutenant Von Deimling and German forces under command have crossed into Switzerland to prevent capture by French.

The correspondent of the London Times at Depe, under Thursday date, indicates that the Germans are less than twenty-five miles from Paris. He says: "All day yesterday the head of the wedge which now forms the German right was furiously forcing its way to Paris, battering rear of retreating French at Trucell, Senlis and Crepy en Valois. Cannonading broke windows in Chantilly which is only seventeen miles north of Paris. The Germans are also near Soissons."

WILL AID HOME-COMING WEEK.

Former Nodaway County Residents, Now Prominent, Promise to Return.

That the initial Homecoming of Nodaway county to be held from October 13 to 17 in Maryville, is to be a sure enough return to former stamping grounds, is evidenced by replies received this morning by W. R. Jackson, secretary of the Commercial club, which is promoting the event. Mayor Henry L. Jost of Kansas City, a former resident of Hopkins, promises to appear behind the foot lights during the week as does also Leon Smith, president of the Smith-McCord-Townsend Wholesale Dry Goods company and former president of the Kansas City commercial club.

J. W. Perry president of the Southwest National Bank of Commerce, one of the largest financial institutions of Kansas City, also may return to his old home here during the week. S. O. Dunn and Mrs. Dunn, of Chicago, also have agreed to appear among old acquaintances next month. Mr. Dunn is editor of the Railway Age Gazette, a railroad publication which circles the globe and then some.

E. E. E. McJimsey, publisher of the Springfield Republican and one of the liveliest wires of the Ozark metropolis expects to appear in Maryville during the event with his family. They will drive overland.

Merrill Otis, a prominent attorney of St. Joseph and Arthur Miller, a railroad attorney of Kansas City, a brother-in-law of Fred P. Robinson, also have agreed to enliven the initial event next month.

MONOPLANE FLIES TOMORROW.

Captain Worden is Entry No. 1 in the Race Around the World.

"The monoplane will be ready for the flight tomorrow afternoon," said Capt. J. Hector Worden, examining the plane after the accident he sustained last night alighting from the 5 o'clock flight. "I tried to get within as close range as possible to the grand stand to light so the people could see. The small ditch into which I ran couldn't be seen for the weeds. Had I had on more speed the machine would have turned a complete somersault and wrecked it."

The captain is reluctant about asserting facts concerning himself, but is free in giving information about the monoplane. He gives it as his opinion that the present war in Europe will be determined by the aeroplane. He said that the type of machine used most extensively in the war was the monoplane, because of its ease and speed and the height that it can go.

Captain Worden is entry No. 1 in the "race around the world." He was given the No. 1 entry in token of the work he did while flying at the National Corn Exposition at Dallas, Texas, February 15-25, 1914. That city voted him as its entry in the exposition race and will back him with $25,000. Prizes will amount to about $3,000,000, with something like fifty-six entries assured.

Captain Worden said that the 2 o'clock flight had been the hardest for him to make because of the heat. Pockets in the air will be found where there are large patches of the trees, because the sun's rays can't get down to the ground to absorb the moisture, and consequently does not expand, so when flying from an open space where the rays of the sun reach the ground and expand the moisture the monoplane drops and then it is that the most danger occurs in losing control of the machine.

For two weeks after Madero was murdered it was Captain Worden who furnished the American Press association with exclusive views of the war and the noted Mexican personages.

Ralph Marcell "moved" the monoplane flight yesterday afternoon, and those who watched Mr. Marcell when Captain Worden made a descent toward the earth were much amused at his antics. The captain came within about twenty-five feet of the ground and directly at the camera. Mr. Marcell explained his action by saying that his camera has no adjustment for taking pictures at an altitude, but he has to set it with the tripod. He says that he wasn't a bit frightened.

Peeling Back the Silver Lining.

Never get soured with life, advises the Humansville Star-Leader. It doesn't mend matters with us and it makes us very disagreeable to others. If we have troubles we are not alone for other people have them also. Life is not all sunshine, even with the most fortunate and the most envied. But with almost every one there is far more sunshine than cloud, and there would be still more of it if we would learn to look more often upon the bright side of life. Be warm-hearted and sunny and we shall find any number of silver linings to even the darkest clouds.

Dinner for Newly Weds.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl F. Keever, newly weds, were given a wedding dinner Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Keever's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. ### For Better Babies.

Come to think of it, why not? State and county fairs have for years been stimulating interest in the production of better babies in herd, stud and flock. Some of them have also offered prizes for boy and girl babies as well, but in most cases the affairs have been treated more or less as simply good fun, and as a means of adding to the gate receipts. The baby with the prettiest features, the "cunningest" curl, the most alluring smile, or the dearest dimple has won "many a time and oft" over a strapping but perhaps less scrupulous bundle of good health.

The Missouri state fair in effect proposes to put bone, lung power, circulation, digestive capacity, breadth, depth, length and general physical promise above that of beauty, which is proverbially skin deep, and call in physicians to examine the entries to the "better baby" show to be held this year at Sedalia. They will test the baby by standards which have been set by specialists in the care and feeding of children, who know just how much a baby should weigh and measure and what its general development should be at a given age, and, best of all, when the babies do not come up to the standard and do not win prizes, the judges are to tell the parents why, and how the baby can be made better for another year's fair, and for all its life.

Eugenics is all right. It is good to begin with the baby's welfare as early as you can, but this Missouri way seems full of promise of practical results. Some men and some women know more about the hygiene of the infants of the barnyard than of those in the house. They all love their own, of course, but not all parents are equally well informed as to the needs of child life. Good for Missouri.—The Breeders' Gazette, August 13, 1914.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots—
How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a real complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength ointment as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

In addition to the eating tent which the club women are operating at the county fair for the rest room benefit, a parcel checking station was established yesterday in the horticultural booth for the same fund.

The fund is to be used to pay the matron's salary, and so far the women have been very successful in their work.

MAKES FIRE RATE CODE.

State Superintendent Presents Measures for Uniform Insurance Legislation.

All the various phases of fire insurance rate legislation are covered in a series of measures tentatively drawn by Charles G. Revelle, state superintendent of insurance. Revelle will submit the result of his work at a meeting of a committee of state superintendents of insurance in Chicago Saturday. The committee was selected by the National Association of Insurance Superintendents to suggest and recommend uniform legislation.

Revelle's measures provide a drastic prohibition against discrimination in rate making.

One measure requires fire insurance companies to file copies of all agreements as to rate making with the state superintendent.

Another authorizes the formation of joint rating bureaus, the power to regulate the bureau being lodged in the hands of the superintendent.

One of the most important bills clothes the state superintendent with power to pass upon all fire insurance schedules and to fix a maximum rate upon the various classes of property.

The Missouri insurance commission, appointed by Governor Major to suggest amendments to the existing state code of fire insurance laws, of which Revelle is a member, will approve of the bills as drawn by him.

At a meeting of Missouri commission in October a report to the legislature will be drawn up. The most important recommendation will be for the establishment of the office of state fire marshal.

SUGGEST ELECTION CHANGE.

Proposition Would Eliminate Weaker Political Organizations.

Secretary of State Roach has received a copy of the platform adopted by the Progressive state convention held at Kansas City, August 25. The Democrats, Republicans, Socialist Labor and Progressives now have filed. The Socialists and the Prohibitionists are left.

The filing of these platforms, especially by the minor parties, directs attention to the fact that the commission charged with the task of revising and suggesting changes in the election and primary laws should suggest that there be some method injected into the law providing for machinery to wipe off the slate officials of parties which in several elections do not make a showing above a certain percentage.

In the recent state primary the Socialist Labor party polled in all the state but eighty-two votes for its candidate for the nomination for judge of the supreme court. This was the only candidate of that party for a state office.

The Prohibitionists had a candidate in the primary for only one state office, superintendent of schools. The entire vote of the party in the primary was 226.

The Socialists, the next lowest party in the primary, had candidates for all three places on the state ticket. The highest vote they polled was for the nominee for state superintendent of schools, 4,284.

The Progressives polled the next lowest number in the primary, but it is fair to say for them that this was the first primary in which they participated as a party. Their vote was 5,614 for Sager for United States senator.

As the total primary vote was more than 400,000, it will be seen that the suggestion that some of the alleged parties that have been cluttering up the election and primary machinery of the state for years is a very timely one.

It has been further suggested that when, after the third primary in the existence of a party, its vote goes below a certain percentage of the whole vote of the state, that the law be so arranged as automatically to put it out of existence.

CARDINAL DELLA CHIESA CHOSEN POPE

New Pontiff Is Less Than Sixty-
Years Old.

Rome, Sept. 4.—Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, Italy, was elected supreme pontiff of the Catholic hierarchy in succession to the late pope, Pius X, who died Aug. 20. He will reign under the name of Benedict XV.

He was born at Pegli, Nov. 21, 1854, and was ordained a priest Dec. 21, 1878. He was created a cardinal May 25, 1914.

The new pontiff is one of the leading opponents of the so-called modernism. In January, 1914, while still at Bologna, the present pope issued at pastoral letter strongly condemning the tango.

It has been 174 years since the time of Pope Benedict XIV.

A Coincidence.

"I didn't want to come here in the first place," confided the first guest at the expensive hotel at a well known winter holiday resort on the south coast.

"No more did I," replied the second, "but my wife insisted on my coming."

"So did mine," said the first. "She said we had to come, just because the Munseys were coming, although I told her we simply could not afford the expense."

"And that's what I did," explained the second, "but my wife said we had to come because the Browns were coming."

"Why, look here, my name is Brown."

"And mine is Munsey."

Then the two men shook one another by the hand.—Portland Spectator.

One Means of Support.

Miss Campbell, the Sunday school teacher, discovered, to her horror, that some of the small members of her class had taken as literal truths the tales of ancient gods and goddesses which they had read in a child's mythology at school.

She determined, if possible, to destroy this belief by simple logic, and with this end in view she asked:

"Who was it, Amalia, that supported the world on his shoulders?"

"Atlas, ma'am," the little girl replied, promptly.

"That is correct," said the teacher. "Now, children, think. If he was supporting the world on his shoulders, of course he could not be standing on it. Now, what supported Atlas?"

"I know," cried Amalia. "He married a rich wife!"—Baltimore American.

It is a fundamental law of nature that reward comes in direct ratio to effort.

THE UNHAMPERED KAISER.

Responsible to No One, Says Price Collier, and Would Have Made a Good American.

When the final judgment is passed upon the emperor, we must recall his deep religious feeling that he is inevitably an instrument of God; his ingrained and ineradicable method of reading history as though it were a series of the ipse dixits of kings; his complacent neglect of how the work of the world is done by patient labor; of how works of art are only born of travail and tears; his obsession by that curious psychology of kings that leads them to believe that they are somehow different, and under other laws, as though they lived in another dimension of space.

In addition he is a man of unusually rapid mental machinery, of overpowering self-confidence, of great versatility, of many advantages of training and experience, and, above all, he is unhampered. He is answerable, directly, to no one, to no parliament, to no minister, to no people. He is father, guardian, guide, schoolmaster and priest, but in no sense a servant responsible to any master save one of his own choosing.

The only wonder is that he is not insupportable. Those who have come under the spell of his personality declare him to be the most delightful of companions; what Germany has grown to be under his reign of twenty-five years all the world knows, much of the world envies, some of the world fears; what his own people think of him can best be expressed by the statement that his supremacy was never more assured than today.

I agree that no man can be credited

with the astonishing expansion of Germany in all directions in the last thirty years; but so interwoven are the advice and influence, the ambitions and plans, of the German emperor with the progress of the German people that this one personality shares his country's success as no single individual in any other country can be said to do.

Whether he likes Americans or not one can hardly know. No doubt he has made many of them think so; and, alas, we suffer from a national hallucination that we are all liked abroad, whether as a matter of fact we are no more liked than others; and in addition, laughed at by the careless and sneered at by the sour.

That the Kaiser is liked by Americans, both by those who have met him and by those who have not, I think, indisputable. He is of the stuff that would have made a first rate American. He would have been a sovereign there as he is a sovereign here. He would have enjoyed the risks, and turmoil, and competition; he would have enjoyed the fine, free field of endeavor, and he would have jousted with the best of us in our tournament of life, which has trampled as many knights sans peur et sans reproche as any country in the world.

I believe in a man who takes what he thinks belongs to him, and holds it against the world; and the man who so loves life that he keeps a hearty appetite for it and takes long draughts of it; who is ever ready to come back smiling for another round with the world, no matter how hard he has been punished. I believe that God believes in the man who believes in Him, and therefore in himself. Why should I debar a man from my sympathy because he is a king or an emperor? I admire your courage, sir; I love your indiscretions; I applaud your faith in your God, and your confidence in yourself, and your splendid service to your country. Without you Germany would have remained a second rate power.

Had you been what your critics pretend that they would like you to be, Germany would have been still ruling the clouds.

Here's long life to your power, sir, and to your possessions, and to you! And as an Anglo-Saxon, I thank God, that all your countrymen are not like you!—Price Collier in "Germany and the Germans."

HURL BOMBS INTO ANTWERP

German Airmen Escape as Fort Guns Boom.

London, Sept. 3.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegraph company from Antwerp says that a Zeppelin airship passed over that city and dropped several bombs. One struck the railway, doing no damage, but others seriously damaged ten houses.

In addition to those striking the houses, five bombs tore great holes in a field at the rear of the buildings. The forts fired on the airship and it is believed that it was hit. The Zeppelin retired in a southerly direction and dropped eight or nine bombs at one time, seemingly to facilitate its own escape.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

As the lines around Paris tighten and the German forces draw closer to the French capital, the official statements regarding the progress of war grow briefer and are more and more lacking in details.

So far as the public is concerned little is actually known as to how the armies in the field are faring. Most of the information made public from official quarters is of a negative character, as, for instance, the announcement of the French war office that there has been no contact with the German forces in the region of Compeigne and Senlis since Wednesday, and that the situation in the northeast has not changed. The two towns are respectively forty-five miles and thirty-two miles northeast of the French capital and they appear to mark the points nearest Paris to which the German advance guards have approached.

With the removal of the government to Bordeaux all efforts around Paris have been directed to preparations for the threatened investment of the capital by the Germans. In addition, the French authorities have ordered aeroplane patrols to guard against any further raids by German aviators.

The attitude of Turkey is still awaited with anxiety and a Petrograd dispatch says it is mobilizing on the Austrian boundary, but slowly. Another list of British casualties officially reported at London number 5,228, of whom 470 are killed and wounded and 4,758 are missing. The list shows a large percentage of officers.

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Amiens, France, to the Daily Mail, declares that the Germans have taken possession of Amiens after three days' fighting.

Amiens is the capital of the department of Somme. It is seventy miles directly north of Paris. It is a manufacturing city and has a population of 90,000. It is on the line of the railroad to Boulogne and about fifty miles to the west of La Fere.

The dispatch to the Daily Mail from Amiens adds that the success of the Germans at Amiens made the capture of Amiens certain. The entry was not contested. The mayor, after receiving a German envoy, announced the surrender of the city and urged the citizens to make no disturbance.

The Germans thereupon went to the town hall, where they hoisted the German flag and hoisted the German colors. The German troops began entering the city about midday, singing as they came "Die Wacht am Rhein" and "Deutschland über Alles."

No time was wasted, however, as orders were to move swiftly on to the road to Paris. Only a few men were left to guard the city. The only casualties in connection with the German occupation were those of a chauffeur, who was shot at the gates because he did not stop quickly enough at the order of the sentry and that of a local sausage maker, who got into a war of words with some troopers over the price of his wares.

When the Germans entered Amiens the French retired to Picquigny, eight miles northwest of Amiens, blowing up both bridges over the Somme.

Austrians Lose 100,000 Men.

Rome, Sept. 4.—The Russian embassy has been notified that the Austrians were overwhelmingly defeated near Lemberg, losing more than 100,000 men and fifty-seven cannon. The occupation of the city of Lemberg was said to be imminent.

Russian Duma to Meet.

Petrograd, Sept. 4.—A short session of the duma is expected to convene at an early date to deal with taxation. The government already has raised the international and domestic telegraph rates. The postal rates also have been increased.

The Library Report.

The library report of the Maryville free public library for the month of August shows that 1,367 books and magazines were loaned. The average daily attendance was 52. There were 1,453 readers in the rooms of the library and the average number of readers for a day was 47. Readers' cards to the number of fifteen were issued. The library collected during the month $12.20.

GERMANS CAPTURE FORTRESS OF LA FERRE

Allies Have Abandoned Valley of Somme.

London, Sept. 4.—An undated French dispatch to the Times says: "The valley of the Somme has been abandoned. La Fere has been taken after a bloody combat. We were obliged to retire."

"The right wing of the Germans," says the correspondent, "is too far advanced, and there is a chance that it will be cut and caught between two fires if the British should be found in force. Our center is resting very well and the right wing of our army appears to be taking the offensive."

RUS ARMY TO BELGIUM

Troops of Czar Travel Through England to War.

New York, Sept. 4.—A Russian army of 72,000 men, transported from Archangel, Russia, was landed at Aberdeen, on the east coast of Scotland, on Aug. 27, and conveyed on special trains to Harwich, Grimsby and Dover, where transports were waiting to take them to Ostend, in Belgium, according to officers and passengers of the Cunard liner Mauretania, which reached here from Liverpool.

Every precaution was taken by the English and Russian military authorities, persons on the Mauretania said, to keep the fact that the foreign soldiers were being transported through England.

Service on the east coast railway lines was suspended during the seventeen hours the troop trains were on their journey.

It was generally believed by those on the Mauretania who made these statements that the Russians would be joined at Ostend by British marines waiting there to receive them, and that the combined forces would cooperate with the Belgian army at Antwerp.

BERLIN PREPARES TO FIGHT

Five Corps, Numbering 200,000 Men, Will Resist Attack on Capital.

Amsterdam, Sept. 4.—An official dispatch from Berlin says preparations have been begun to resist an attack on the capital. Five army corps, numbering 200,000 men, have been selected to protect Berlin against the advance of the enemy.

Great numbers of wounded are arriving in Berlin daily. The trains are not unloaded until dark in order to avoid undue curiosity on the part of the public. The wounded are coming mostly from East Prussia.

German Troops on Way West.

London, Sept. 4.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company telegraphs that 1,500 Austrian soldiers, belonging to the heavy siege artillery corps of Trieste, passed through Cologne, on their way to the western theater of war. The journey of these Austrian troops lasted four days and the soldiers brought their own siege material with them.

Paris Is Disappointed.

Paris, Sept. 4.—Paris was disappointed, for no German aeroplane flew over the city. Crowds gathered in the Place de la Concorde, the Place de la Bourse, the Place de l'Etoile and the Quai des Tuileries to watch for the aeroplanes, but none came. Several French machines patrolled the sky ready to engage the enemy.

Communication With Tsingtau Broken

New York, Sept. 4.—The Commercial Cable company issued a statement saying that it had been advised by the Chinese Telegraph company that communication with Tsingtau, the German base in Kiauchau, is totally terminated.

U.S. SHIP BARRED IN DARDANELLES

Turkey Refuses to Allow American Cruiser to Pass Straits.

MIGHT ESTABLISH PRECEDENT.

Grand Vizier Informs Washington Government That Waters Mined, So Making Them Unsafe For Vessel, Which Carries Gold For Americans.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Turkey has declined to grant the request of the United States for permission to send the cruiser Yorba through the Dardanelles to Constantinople to deliver $500,000 in gold deposited here for the relief of Americans in the Ottoman empire.

The grand vizier has informed the American government that the waters of the Dardanelles have been mined and that it would be unsafe for a vessel as large as the North Carolina to go through the straits. He declared also that it might establish a precedent for the passage of other foreign warships and suggested that the American naval yacht Scorpion, on duty constantly in Turkish waters, along with other light vessels that serve foreign missions, be sent to sea to meet the North Carolina.

This was the substance of a long cablegram received at the White House and state department from Ambassador Morgenthau, the first message from him in several days. He made no mention of any declaration of war, but referred to the diplomatic situation as highly critical.

The ambassador reported that all Americans who wished to leave had done so and he thought funds aboard the North Carolina would be sufficient for immediate needs.

In view of the delicate situation, the American ambassador suggested that the plan of sending the Scorpion to meet the North Carolina outside the straits be adopted.

TELLS DUTIES OF ALLIES

Must "Hang On" to Germans in France Until Russians Finish Task.

London, Sept. 4.—The Times' military expert says: "The hope of the allies lies in 'hanging on' to the Germans, thus making it necessary for Germany to keep a large number of her best troops in France. This would facilitate Russia's task and the plan must be carried through to the bitter end."

"Every battle fought brings the Germans so much farther from home and increases Germany's difficulties. The allies must not allow the enemy to gain a single yard without exacting from them a heavy penalty. 'The British can do much by operating from the north.'"

Germany's Plan of Campaign.

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Berlin says: "Germany's plan of campaign was thought out many years ago and never since departed from—to bend all energies at the very outset to the smashing of Germany's western neighbor. Russia is to be left to Austria until France shall have been disposed of. No one can come in daily contact with the officers of the general staff without being impressed with their confidence in an eventual and absolute victory."

German Barred in Russia.

Petrograd, Sept. 4.—The feeling in Russia against Germany increases with the stories of the cruelty of the Germans toward peaceful inhabitants and prisoners. German standards are being discarded, and German teachers in state schools have been dismissed. There is a tendency to forbid the use of German words. Hotel notices request clients not to speak German. Germans in public places now speak Russian, French or English.

Music to Spur French On.

Paris, Sept. 4.—With a view to keeping up the spirits of the soldiers at the front the minister of war, M. Millerand, has authorized the famous Breton poet and singer, Theodore Botrel, author of several popular pieces, to go to sing patriotic songs in the depots, camps, and hospitals of the eastern and northern armies.

Turkish Army Moves.

Paris, Sept. 4.—An official dispatch from Constantinople says that the Fifth Turkish army corps is now assembled on the Asiatic bank of the Bosphorus, while the First corps is on the European side, just opposite. The Sixth corps is going north to the Gulf of Ismid district.

Paris Is Entrenching.

Paris, Sept. 4.—An immense and complicated system of entrenchments is being constructed outside the city. It is reported that the engineers in charge of the work are keeping several hundred thousand men busy.

Aeroplane Drops Bombs into Belfort

Belfort, France, Sept. 4.—A German aeroplane dropped several shells here. The missiles made much noise, but did no damage. The aviator, to avoid the fire of the Belfort forts, made a detour over Swiss territory.

Fresh Fighting on Near Malines.

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Amsterdam says that fresh fighting is taking place near Malines, Belgium.

Going After the Gamblers.

Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright and Sheriff Ed Wallace are going after the gamblers who have come here during the fair. The two officials notified the men who are gambling and betting on the races that they will have to go. A number of both classes were required to leave yesterday. Every effort will be made to stop all kinds of gambling.

MONOPLANE FLIES TOMORROW.

Captain Worden is Entry No. 1 in the Race Around the World.

"The monoplane will be ready for the flight tomorrow afternoon," said Capt. J. Hector Worden, examining the 'plane after the accident he sustained last night—alighting from the 5 o'clock flight. "I tried to get within as close range as possible to the grand stand to light so the people could see. The small ditch into which I ran couldn't be seen for the weeds. Had I had on more speed the machine would have turned a complete somersault and wrecked it."

The captain is reluctant about asserting facts concerning himself, but is free in giving information about the monoplane. He gives it as his opinion that the present war in Europe will be determined by the aeroplane. He said that the type of machine used most extensively in the war was the monoplane, because of its ease and speed and the height that it can go.

Captain Worden is entry No. 1 in the "race around the world." He was given the No. 1 entry in token of the work he did while flying at the National Corn Exposition at Dallas, Texas, February 15-25, 1914. That city voted him as its entry in the exposition race and will back him with $25,000. Prizes will amount to about $3,000,000, with something like fifty-six entries assured.

Captain Worden said that the 2 o'clock flight had been the hardest for him to make because of the heat. Pockets in the air will be found where there are large patches of the trees, because the sun's rays can't get down to the ground to absorb the moisture, and consequently does not expand, so when flying from an open space where the rays of the sun reach the ground and expand the moisture the monoplane drops and then it is that the most danger occurs in losing control of the machine.

For two weeks after Madero was murdered it was Captain Worden who furnished the American Press association with exclusive views of the war and the noted Mexican personages.

Ralph Marcell "moved" the monoplane flight yesterday afternoon, and those who watched Mr. Marcell when Captain Worden made a descent toward the earth were much amused at his antics. The captain came within about twenty-five feet of the ground and directly at the camera. Mr. Marcell explained his action by saying that his camera has no adjustment for taking pictures at an altitude, but he has to set it with the tripod. He says that he wasn't a bit frightened.

Peeling Back the Silver Lining.

Never get soured with life, advises the Humansville Star-Leader. It doesn't mend matters with us and it makes us very disagreeable to others. If we have troubles we are not alone for other people have them also. Life is not all sunshine, even with the most fortunate and the most envied. But with almost every one there is far more sunshine than cloud, and there would be still more of it if we would learn to look more often upon the bright side of life. Be warm-hearted and sunny and we shall find any number of silver linings to even the darkest clouds.

Miss Esther Pence of Union Star and Oscar Swaggert of Cameron are guests for the remainder of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Porter.

For Better Babies.

Come to think of it, why not? State and county fairs have for years been stimulating interest in the production of better babies in herd, stud and flock. Some of them have also offered prizes for boy and girl babies as well, but in most cases the affairs have been treated more or less as simply good fun, and as a means of adding to the gate receipts. The baby with the prettiest features, the "cuddliest" curl, the most alluring smile, or the dearest dimple has won "many a time and oft" over a strapping but perhaps less seraphic bundle of good health.

The Missouri state fair in effect proposes to put bone, lung power, circulation, digestive capacity, breadth, depth, length and general physical promise above that of beauty, which is proverbially skin deep, and call in physicians to examine the entries to the "better baby" show to be held this year at Sedalia. They will test the baby by standards which have been set by specialists in the care and feeding of children, who know just how much a baby should weigh and measure and what its general development should be at a given age, and, best of all, when the babies do not come up to the standard and do not win prizes, the judges are to tell the parents why, and how the baby can be made better for another year's fair, and for all its life.

Eugenics is all right. It is good to begin with the baby's welfare as early as you can, but this Missouri way seems full of promise of practical results. Some men and some women know more about the hygiene of the infants of the barnyard than of those in the house. They all love their own, of course, but not all parents are equally well informed as to the needs of child life. Good for Missouri.—The Breeders' Gazette, August 13, 1914.

MAKES FIRE RATE CODE.

State Superintendent Presents Measures for Uniform Insurance Legislation.

All the various phases of fire insurance rate legislation are covered in a series of measures tentatively drawn by Charles G. Revelle, state superintendent of insurance. Revelle will submit the result of his work at a meeting of a committee of state superintendents of insurance in Chicago Saturday. The committee was selected by the National Association of Insurance Superintendents to suggest and recommend uniform legislation.

Revelle's measures provide a drastic prohibition against discrimination in rate making.

One measure requires fire insurance companies to file copies of all agreements as to rate making with the state superintendent.

Another authorizes the formation of joint rating bureaus, the power to regulate the bureau being lodged in the hands of the superintendent.

One of the most important bills clothes the state superintendent with power to pass upon all fire insurance schedules and to fix a maximum rate upon the various classes of property.

The Missouri insurance commission, appointed by Governor Major to suggest amendments to the existing state code of fire insurance laws, of which Revelle is a member, will approve of the bills as drawn by him.

At a meeting of Missouri commission in October a report to the legislature will be drawn up. The most important recommendation will be for the establishment of the office of state fire marshal.

SUGGEST ELECTION CHANGE.

Proposition Would Eliminate Weaker Political Organizations.

Secretary of State Roach has received a copy of the platform adopted by the Progressive state convention held at Kansas City, August 25. The Democrats, Republicans, Socialist Labor and Progressives now have filed. The Socialists and the Prohibitionists are left.

The filing of these platforms, especially by the minor parties, directs attention to the fact that the commission charged with the task of revising and suggesting changes in the election and primary laws should suggest that there be some method injected into the law providing for machinery to wipe off the slate officials of parties which in several elections do not make a showing above a certain percentage.

In the recent state primary the Socialist Labor party polled in all the state but eighty-two votes for its candidate for the nomination for judge of the supreme court. This was the only candidate of that party for a state office.

The Prohibitionists had a candidate in the primary for only one state office, superintendent of schools. The entire vote of the party in the primary was 226.

The Socialists, the next lowest party in the primary, had candidates for all three places on the state ticket. The highest vote they polled was for the nominee for state superintendent of schools, 4,284.

The Progressives polled the next lowest number in the primary, but it is fair to say for them that this was the first primary in which they participated as a party. Their vote was 5,614 for Sager for United States senator.

As the total primary vote was more than 400,000, it will be seen that the suggestion that some of the alleged parties that have been cluttering up the election and primary machinery of the state for years is a very timely one.

It has been further suggested that when, after the third primary in the existence of a party, its vote goes below a certain percentage of the whole vote of the state, that the law be so arranged as automatically to put it out of existence.

CARDINAL DELLA GHIESA CHOSEN POPE

New Pontiff Is Less Than Sixty-
Years Old.

Rome, Sept. 4.—Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, Italy, was elected supreme pontiff of the Catholic hierarchy in succession to the late pope, Pius X, who died Aug. 20. He will reign under the name of Benedict XV.

He was born at Pegli, Nov. 21, 1854, and was ordained a priest Dec. 21, 1878. He was created a cardinal May 25, 1914.

The new pontiff is one of the leading opponents of the so-called modernism. In January, 1914, while still at Bologna, the present pope issued a pastoral letter strongly condemning the tango.

It has been 174 years since the time of Pope Benedict XIV.

EFFORT AND REWARD

It is a fundamental law of nature that reward comes in direct ratio to effort.

Man would accomplish very little in this world if things were given to him. As it is, most men work just for the necessities of life—they never think of the future or even try to provide for their own comfort, when old age shall at last cut off their earning power, as it surely will.

A Coincidence.

"I didn't want to come here in the first place," confided the first guest at the expensive hotel at a well known winter holiday resort on the south coast.

"No more did I," replied the second, "but my wife insisted on my coming." "So did mine," said the first. "She said we had to come, just because the Munseys were coming, although I told her we simply could not afford the expense."

"And that's what I did," explained the second, "but my wife said we had to come because the Browns were coming."

"Why, look here, my name is Brown."

"And mine is Munsey," Then the two men shook one another by the hand.—Portland Spectator.

One Means of Support.

Miss Campbell, the Sunday school teacher, discovered, to her horror, that some of the small members of her class had taken as literal truths the tales of ancient gods and goddesses which they had read in a child's mythology at school.

She determined, if possible, to destroy this belief by simple logic, and with this end in view she asked:

"Who was it, Amelia, that supported the world on his shoulders?"

"Atlas, ma'am," the little girl replied, promptly.

"That is correct," said the teacher. "Now, children, think. If he was supporting the world on his shoulders, of course he could not be standing on it. Now, what supported Atlas?"

"I know," cried Amelia. "He married a rich wife!"—Baltimore American.

THE UNHAMPERED KAISER.

Responsible to No One, Says Price Collier, and Would Have Made a Good American.

When the final judgment is passed upon the emperor, we must recall his deep religious feeling that he is inevitably an instrument of God; his ingrained and ineradicable method of reading history as though it were a series of the ipse dixits of kings; his complacent neglect of how the work of the world is done by patient labor; of how works of art are only born of travail and tears; his obsession by that curious psychology of kings that leads them to believe that they are somehow different, and under other laws, as though they lived in another dimension of space.

In addition he is a man of unusually rapid mental machinery, of overpowering self-confidence, of great versatility, of many advantages of training and experience, and, above all, he is unhampered. He is answerable, directly, to no one, to no parliament, to no minister, to no people. He is father, guardian, guide, schoolmaster and priest, but in no sense a servant responsible to any master save one of his own choosing.

The only wonder is that he is not insupportable. Those who have come under the spell of his personality declare him to be the most delightful of companions; what Germany has grown to be under his reign of twenty-five years all the world knows, much of the world envies, some of the world fears; what his own people think of him can best be expressed by the statement that his supremacy was never more assured than today.

I agree that no man can be credited

with the astonishing expansion of Germany in all directions in the last thirty years; but so interwoven are the advice and influence, the ambitions and plans, of the German emperor with the progress of the German people that this one personality shares his country's success as no single individual in any other country can be said to do.

Whether he likes Americans or not one can hardly know. No doubt he has made many of them think so; and, alas, we suffer from a national hallucination that we are all liked abroad, whether as a matter of fact we are no more liked than others; and in addition, laughed at by the careless and sneered at by the sour.

That the Kaiser is liked by Americans, both by those who have met him and by those who have not, is, I think, indisputable. He is of the stuff that would have made a first rate American. He would have been a sovereign there as he is a sovereign here. He would have enjoyed the risks, and turmoil, and competition; he would have enjoyed the fine, free field of endeavor, and he would have jousted with the best of us in our tournament of life, which has trifled as many knights sans peur et sans reproche as any country in the world.

I believe in a man who takes what he thinks belongs to him, and holds it against the world; and the man who so loves life that he keeps a hearty appetite for it and takes long draughts of it; who is ever ready to come back smiling for another round with the world, no matter how hard he has been punished. I believe that God believes in the man who believes in Him, and therefore in himself. Why should I debar a man from my sympathy because he is a king or an emperor? I admire your courage, sir; I love your indiscretions; I applaud your faith in your God, and your confidence in yourself, and your splendid service to your country. Without you Germany would have remained a second rate power.

Had you been what your critics pretend that they would like you to be, Germany would have been still ruling the clouds.

Here's long life to your power, sir, and to your possessions, and to you! And as an Anglo-Saxon, I thank God, that all your countrymen are not like you!—Price Collier in "Germany and the Germans."

HURL BOMBS INTO ANTWERP

German Airmen Escape as Fort Guns Boom.

London, Sept. 3.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegraph company from Antwerp says that a Zeppelin airship passed over that city and dropped several bombs. One struck the railway, doing no damage, but others seriously damaged ten houses.

In addition to those striking the houses, five bombs tore great holes in a field at the rear of the buildings. The forts fired on the airship and it is believed that it was hit. The Zeppelin retired in a southerly direction and dropped eight or nine bombs at one time, seemingly to facilitate its own escape.

French Retire to Picquigny, Blowing Up Bridges Over River.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

As the lines around Paris tighten and the German forces draw closer to the French capital, the official statements regarding the progress of war grow briefer and are more and more lacking in details.

So far as the public is concerned little is actually known as to how the armies in the field are faring. Most of the information made public from official quarters is of a negative character, as, for instance, the announcement of the French war office that there has been no contact with the German forces in the region of Compeigne and Senlis since Wednesday, and that the situation in the northeast has not changed.

The two towns are respectively forty-five miles and thirty-two miles northeast of the French capital and they appear to mark the points nearest Paris to which the German advance guards have approached.

With the removal of the government to Bordeaux all efforts around Paris have been directed to preparations for the threatened investment of the capital by the Germans. In addition, the French authorities have ordered aeroplane patrols to guard against any further raids by German aviators.

The attitude of Turkey is still awaited with anxiety and a Petrograd dispatch says it is mobilizing on the Austrian boundary, but slowly.

Another list of British casualties officially reported at London number 5,228, of whom 470 are killed and wounded and 4,758 are missing. The list shows a large percentage of officers.

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Amiens, France, to the Daily Mail, declares that the Germans have taken possession of Amiens after three days' fighting.

Amiens is the capital of the department of Somme. It is seventy miles directly north of Paris. It is a manufacturing city and has a population of 50,000. It is on the line of the railway to Reims and about fifty miles to the west of La Fere.

The dispatch to the Daily Mail from Amiens adds that the success of the Germans at Amiens made the capture of Amiens certain. The entry was not contested. The mayor, after receiving a German envoy, announced the surrender of the city and urged the citizens to make no disturbance.

The Germans thereupon went to the town hall, where they hoisted down the French flag and hoisted the German colors. The German troops began entering the city about midday, singing as they came "Die Wacht am Rhein" and "Deutschland über Alles."

No time was wasted, however, as orders were to move swiftly out on the road to Paris. Only a few men were left to guard the city. The only casualties in connection with the German occupation were those of a chauffeur, who was shot at the gates because he did not stop quickly enough at the order of the sentry and that of a local sausage maker, who got into a war of words with some troopers over the price of his wares.

When the Germans entered Amiens the French retired to Picquigny, eight miles northwest of Amiens, blowing up both bridges over the Somme.

Austrians Lose 100,000 Men.

Rome, Sept. 4.—The Russian embassy has been notified that the Austrians were overwhelmingly defeated near Lemberg, losing more than 100,000 men and fifty-seven cannon. The occupation of the city of Lemberg was said to be imminent.

GERMANS CAPTURE FORTRESS OF LA FERRE

Allies Have Abandoned Valley of Somme.

London, Sept. 4.—An undated French dispatch to the Times says: "The valley of the Somme has been abandoned. La Fere has been taken after a bloody combat. We were obliged to retire."

"The right wing of the Germans," says the correspondent, "is too far advanced, and there is a chance that it will be cut and caught between two fires if the British should be found in force. Our center is resting very well and the right wing of our army appears to be taking the offensive."

RUSS ARMY TO BELGIUM

Troops of Czar Travel Through England to War.

New York, Sept. 4.—A Russian army of 72,000 men, transported from Archangel, Russia, was landed at Aberdeen, on the east coast of Scotland, on Aug. 27, and conveyed on special trains to Harwich, Grimsby and Dover, where transports were waiting to take them to Ostend, in Belgium, according to officers and passengers of the Cunard liner Mauretania, which reached here from Liverpool.

Every precaution was taken by the English and Russian military authorities, persons on the Mauretania said, to keep the fact that the foreign soldiers were being transported through England.

Service on the east coast railway lines was suspended during the seven-hour transit of the troops.

It was generally believed by those on the Mauretania who made these statements that the Russians would be joined at Ostend by British marines waiting there to receive them, and that the combined forces would cooperate with the Belgian army at Antwerp.

BERLIN PREPARES TO FIGHT

Five Corps, Numbering 200,000 Men, Will Resist Attack on Capital.

Amsterdam, Sept. 4.—An official dispatch from Berlin says preparations have been begun to resist an attack on the capital. Five army corps, numbering 200,000 men, have been selected to protect Berlin against the advance of the enemy.

Great numbers of wounded are arriving in Berlin daily. The trains are not unloaded until dark in order to avoid undue curiosity on the part of the public. The wounded are coming mostly from East Prussia.

German Troops on Way West.

London, Sept. 4.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company telegraphs that 1,500 Austrian soldiers, belonging to the heavy siege artillery corps of Trieste, passed through Cologne, on their way to the western theater of war. The journey of these Austrian troops lasted four days and the soldiers brought their own siege material with them.

Paris Is Disappointed.

Paris, Sept. 4.—Paris was disappointed, for no German aeroplane flew over the city. Crowds gathered in the Place de la Concorde, the Place de la Bourse, the Place de l'Etoile and the Quai des Tuilleries to watch for the aeroplanes, but none came. Several French machines patrolled the sky ready to engage the enemy.

Communication With Tsingtau Broken.

U.S. SHIP BARRED IN DARDANELLES

MIGHT ESTABLISH PRECEDENT.

Grand Vizier Informs Washington Government That Waters Mined, So Making Them Unsafe For Vessel, Which Carries Gold For Americans.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Turkey has declined to grant the request of the United States for permission to send the cruiser Yavuz Turgut Reis to the Dardanelles to Constantinople to deliver $100,000 in gold deposited here for the relief of Americans in the Ottoman empire.

The grand vizier has informed the American government that the waters of the Dardanelles have been mined and that it would be unsafe for a vessel as large as the North Carolina to go through the straits. He declared also that it might establish a precedent for the passage of other foreign warships and suggested that the American naval yacht Scorpion, on duty constantly in Turkish waters, along with other light vessels that serve foreign missions, be sent to sea to meet the North Carolina.

This was the substance of a long cablegram received at the White House and state department from Ambassador Morgenthau, the first message from him in several days. He made no mention of any declaration of war, but referred to the diplomatic situation as highly critical.

The ambassador reported that all Americans who wished to leave had done so and he thought funds aboard the North Carolina would be sufficient for immediate needs.

In view of the delicate situation, the American ambassador suggested that the plan of sending the Scorpion to meet the North Carolina outside the straits be adopted.

TELLS DUTIES OF ALLIES

Must "Hang On" to Germans in France Until Russians Finish Task.

London, Sept. 4.—The Times' military expert says: "The hope of the allies lies in 'hanging on' to the Germans, thus making it necessary for Germany to keep a large number of her best troops in France. This would facilitate Russia's task and the plan must be carried through to the bitter end."

"Every battle fought brings the Germans so much farther from home and increases Germany's difficulties. The allies must not allow the enemy to gain a single yard without exacting from them a heavy penalty. 'The British can do much by operating from the north.'"

Germany's Plan of Campaign.

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Berlin says: "Germany's plan of campaign was thought out many years ago and never since departed from—to bend all energies at the very outset to the smashing of Germany's western neighbor. Russia is to be left to Austria until France shall have been disposed of. No one can come in daily contact with the officers of the general staff without being impressed with their confidence in an eventual and absolute victory."

German Barred in Russia.

Petrograd, Sept. 4.—The feeling in Russia against Germany increases with the stories of the cruelty of the Germans toward peaceful inhabitants and prisoners. German standards are being discarded, and German teachers in state schools have been dismissed. There is a tendency to forbid the use of German words. Hotel notices request clients not to speak German. Germans in public places now speak Russian, French or English.

Music to Spur French On.

Paris, Sept. 4.—With a view to keeping up the spirits of the soldiers at the front the minister of war, M. Millerand, has authorized the famous Breton poet and singer, Theodore Botrel, author of several popular pieces, to go to sing patriotic songs in the depots, camps, and hospitals of the eastern and northern armies.

Turkish Army Moves.

Paris, Sept. 4.—An official dispatch from Constantinople says that the Fifth Turkish army corps is now assembled on the Asiatic bank of the Bosphorus, while the First corps is on the European side, just opposite. The Sixth corps is going north to the Gulf of Ismid district.

Paris Is Entrenching.

Paris, Sept. 4.—An immense and complicated system of entrenchments is being constructed outside the city. It is reported that the engineers in charge of the work are keeping several hundred thousand men busy.

Aeroplane Drops Bombs on Belfort.

Belfort, France, Sept. 4.—A German aeroplane dropped several shells here. The missiles made much noise, but did no damage. The aviator, to avoid the fire of the Belfort forts, made a detour over Swiss territory.

Fresh Fighting on Near Malines.

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch from Amsterdam says that fresh fighting is taking place near Malines, Belgium.

Going After the Gamblers.

Prosecuting Attorney George Pat Wright and Sheriff Ed Wallace are going after the gamblers who have come here during the fair. The two officials notified the men who are gambling and betting on the races that they will have to go. A number of both classes were required to leave yesterday. Every effort will be made to stop all kinds of gambling.
